

CONDOR TREK

FOUR DAY TRIP

The Condor Trek is an exclusive trek organized by LA LENGUA, which brings you through the central Ecuadorian Andes, where you can observe the fascinating nature with its waterfalls, snow-capped mountains, rivers and lagoons. The bleak plateau of the ecological reserve "Antisana" is the habitat of condors, ducks, Andean seagulls, hummingbirds, rabbits, bears, foxes and weasels.

1st DAY: Río Tambo

Departure at 09h00 in order to get to the Tambo reserve, where we start our trek. At noon we relax and have picnic. In the afternoon we walk to the first camp site beside the volcano lagoon. There you have the option to do some activities. Dinner and overnight stay.

2nd DAY: Volcano Antisana

Departure at 09h00. Trek to the volcano Antisana, then we have a lunch break. Camping in the valley of Santa Lucia where you might like to take pictures of the breathtaking scenery or participate in other activities. Dinner and overnight stay.

3rd DAY: Volcano Sincholagua

Departure at 09h00. Hike to the volcano Sincholagua, then we will have lunch and will camp at the lagoon Quillоторo. Dinner and overnight stay.

4th DAY: Volcano Cotopaxi

At 09h00 departure to the Cotopaxi, lunch break at the refuge, then final trek to the Pita river and return to Quito

Price per person:

From 3 people: US$ 750.-

OPTIONAL:

5th DAY:

Climb the peak of the volcano Cotopaxi US$ 280.- per person , 2 people minimum
Includes: full equipment and guide as well as overnight stay at the Cotopaxi refuge
(Only for experienced mountain climbers)

Includes:

Private transportation, full equipment, 2 guides and food

Does not include:

Entrance fee to the national parks, personal equipment, water purification tablets

What to bring:

Good trekking shoes, sleeping bag, wind- and waterproof jacket, warm clothes, sunglasses, hat, sun cream and camera