

MEDICAL VOLUNTEER PROGRAM AT THE HEALTH CENTRE OF PUERTO LÓPEZ + SPANISH CLASSES

For healthcare professionals such as: physicians, medical students, nurses, dentists, health assistants, etc. who wish to practice at the Healthcare Centre of Puerto López, related with tropical illness, dengue, malaria as well as hepatitis, parasitosis, etc.

This volunteer work gives you the opportunity to learn and practice the Spanish language as well as your knowledge and relate with communities.

The program lasts 4 weeks with the possibility to extend.

SPANISH CLASSES: Students receive 4 hours intensive classes per day with emphasis in medical vocabulary

MEDICAL PRACTICE: Work and interact with local professionals and experts in public health

LOCATION: Canton Puerto López, Province of Manabí
Puerto López is an authentic fishing village with beautiful beaches which is situated in the Machalilla National Park at the coast of the Pacific Ocean.

From there boats depart to the "Isla de la Plata" and tours to observe the wales "jorobadas" are also available.

Furthermore, Puerto López offers many tour options such as: ecologic tours, mountain trekking, etc. This little village with its kind people is a nice and relaxing place.

REQUIREMENTS.- A basic knowledge of Spanish is required. (If you are a beginner, you may take Spanish classes before starting the volunteer work, which has an additional cost of US$ 240.- for 2 weeks at 4 hours daily.

THE PROGRAM INCLUDES:

4 weeks (29 days, 28 nights) of accommodation at the school's bungalows.

Laundry service

2 daily meals (breakfast and dinner)

60 hours of Spanish classes

4 weeks volunteer work

Price per person: US$ 964.- with 60 hours of Spanish classes

DOES NOT INCLUDE:

Airport transfer in Quito US$ 10.-

Transportation Quito-Puerto López - Quito by bus US$ 24.- (round trip)
by plane US$ 139.- (round trip)

Your stay in Quito